

ENGLAND TEAM ANNOUNCED FOR DEVELOPMENT TEST MATCH AGAINST AUSTRALIA

Bowls England is delighted to announce its team for the Development Test Match against Bowls Australia.

The Development Test Match will take place all day on Saturday 30th June at Whitnash Sports and Social Club, Heathcote Road, Whitnash, Warwickshire, CV31 2NF.

Men:

Ryan Atkins (Herefordshire); Connor Cinato (Northamptonshire); Marcus Clifton (Leicestershire); Edward Elmore (Huntingdonshire) and Harry Goodwin (Devon)

Women:

Devon Cooper (Hertfordshire); Laura Holden (Somerset); Kirsty Richards (Warwickshire); Harriet Stevens (Devon) and Rachel Tremlett (Hertfordshire)

Reserves (will be notified if required to attend):

Travis Meller (Isle of Wight) and Emma Cooper (Sussex)

Team Managers:

Martyn Sekjer (Kent) and Nicola Bowe (Cumbria)

The Development Test Match will be in a 'top club' format which will offer the ability for both countries to interchange all players from discipline to discipline and into varying positions.

The Australian Jackaroos team includes 2018 Commonwealth Games gold medallists Kelsey Cottrell, Rebecca Van Asch and Aaron Wilson, while also having a firm eye on blooding the next batch of possible Commonwealth Games competitors.

Further details regarding the start times of each session will be circulated in due course.

Matt Wordingham

Publications and Events

Administrator

t. 01926 334609

w. www.bowlsengland.com